Description:

The Ashworth Property is a 1-story, 3-bay vernacular front gable cottage on the east side of Old Gunpowder Road, in Beltsville vicinity, Prince George's County. Constructed in 1929, the building has a large dual pitch gable addition to the south and east. There is a exterior brick chimney on the south elevation of the addition.

The structure has a front gable, asphalt shingle roof. It is of log construction with vertical board siding, and it has a concrete masonry foundation. The windows are double-hung sash. The house has a 1-story enclosed porch on the south elevation. The porch has a hipped roof and is connected to the addition.

There are two outbuildings associated with this building. The first outbuilding is a shed, with a side gable roof covered with asphalt shingles. Constructed c. 1940, it is of wood frame construction. The structure is located to the northeast of the Ashworth building.

The second outbuilding is a barn, with a gambrel, asphalt shingle roof. Constructed c. 1910 it is of wood frame construction. The structure is located east of the property and shed, on another lot but owned by the same owner.

The property is located on the east side of Old Gunpowder Road, with residential property to the north and south, and woods to the east. There are many trees on the site. The land slopes down to the north and east from Old Gunpowder Road. The property's setting is rural residential.
